DEDICATION & PRAYER

To Jehovah, humbly, to the only true God, the Source of life and all wisdom, through His Son, Jesus Christ, the firstborn of all creation, the hope of eternal life comes through him, the random sacrifice.

May this imperfect human work, to whatever extent it is accurate, serve as a small witness to people of all kinds, from all nations, so that they may come to know you. Let Your Kingdom come! Please, forgive us for our shortcomings as we continue to show love to our neighbors and keep your reminders. May we always stay beneath your wing and follow you as a path to our steps.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Jehovah’s Purpose Revealed Through His Organization:

Chapter 1 – Jehovah’s Organization in the Time of the End

From the beginning, Jehovah has never left his servants without organized direction. True worship has always had order, structure, and appointed servants to care for his people. This is not a human invention; it reflects Jehovah's own personality.

Exodus 18:21:
"But you should select from the people capable men fearing God, trustworthy men hating dishonest profit, and appoint these over them as chiefs over thousands, chiefs over hundreds, chiefs over fifties, and chiefs over tens."

Israel was not a loose crowd of believers; it was a nation organized for worship and service. Later, Jehovah added priests, Levites, prophets, and kings when appropriate. In every era, he arranged for leadership and accountability among his people.

1 Corinthians 14:33:
"For God is a God not of disorder but of peace."

This principle continues into the Christian congregation. In the first century, Christ directed his followers through apostles, elders, and traveling overseers. There was one set of teachings and one body of believers.

Ephesians 4:11, 12:
"And he gave some as apostles, some as prophets, some as evangelizers, some as shepherds and teachers, 12 with a view to the readjustment of the holy ones, for ministerial work, to build up the body of the Christ."

However, the Bible also foretold that an apostasy would arise, corrupting that original arrangement.

2 Thessalonians 2:3:
"Let no one lead you astray in any way, because it will not come unless the apostasy comes first and the man of lawlessness gets revealed, the son of destruction."

This apostasy gave rise to Christendom: religious systems mixing Bible truth with pagan teachings, aligning with political powers, and establishing a clergy class. Yet Jehovah did not abandon his purpose. He promised a future restoration of pure worship.

Malachi 3:1–3:
"'Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will clear up a way before me. And suddenly the true Lord, whom you are seeking, will come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant will come, in whom you take delight. Look! He will certainly come," says Jehovah of armies. 2 "But who will endure the day of his coming, and who will be able to stand when he appears? For he will be like the fire of a refiner and like the lye of laundrymen. 3 And he will sit as a refiner and cleanser of silver and will cleanse the sons of Le'vi; and he will clarify them like gold and like silver, and they will certainly become to Jehovah people presenting a gift offering in righteousness.'"

In the time of the end, true knowledge would increase, and Jehovah would refine a people for his name.

Daniel 12:4:
"As for you, Daniel, keep the words secret, and seal up the book until the time of the end. Many will rove about, and the true knowledge will become abundant."

Today, Jehovah's Witnesses understand themselves as that refined people—coming out of religious confusion, freed from false doctrines, and organized to carry out a global preaching work. They bear Jehovah's name openly and form a united brotherhood worldwide.

Acts 15:14:
"Sym'e·on has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name."

Isaiah 43:10–12:

"You are my witnesses," declares Jehovah, "Yes, my servant whom I have chosen, So that you may know and have faith in me And understand that I am the same One. Before me no God was formed, And after me there has been none. 11 I—I am Jehovah, and besides me there is no savior." 12 "I am the One who declared and saved and made known When there was no foreign god among you. So you are my witnesses," declares Jehovah, "and I am God.'"

Jehovah's Witnesses are organized with elders, ministerial servants, and a central Governing Body that provides spiritual food and direction. This reflects the biblical pattern of a "faithful and discreet slave."

Matthew 24:45:

"Who really is the faithful and discreet slave whom his master appointed over his domestics, to give them their food at the proper time?"

Over time, their understanding has been refined, fulfilling the principle of progressive light.

Proverbs 4:18:

"But the path of the righteous is like the bright morning light That grows brighter and brighter until full daylight."

Taken together, these scriptures show that in the time of the end, Jehovah would again have a clearly identifiable organization: united, clean, neutral, bearing his name, and focused on preaching the good news of the Kingdom.

Matthew 24:14:

"And this good news of the Kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come."

Jehovah's Witnesses see themselves as that organized people, serving under Jehovah's direction and preparing for the full arrival of his Kingdom.

Chapter 2 – The Issue Behind History: Jehovah's Sovereignty and the Lie in Eden

To understand why Jehovah has an organization today, we must look behind human history to the central issue that began in Eden: the question of who has the right to rule and whether Jehovah's way of governing is truly best.

Jehovah created the first humans perfect, placed them in a beautiful home, and gave them meaningful work.

Genesis 2:15–17:
"Jehovah God took the man and settled him in the garden of E'den to cultivate it and to take care of it. 16 Jehovah God also gave this command to the man: "From every tree of the garden you may eat to satisfaction. 17 But as for the tree of the knowledge of good and bad, you must not eat from it, for in the day you eat from it you will certainly die.""

This command was simple and loving. The tree symbolized Jehovah's right to define good and bad. Then a rebellious spirit creature used a serpent to deceive Eve.

Genesis 3:1–5:
"Now the serpent was the most cautious of all the wild animals of the field that Jehovah God had made. So it said to the woman: "Did God really say that you must not eat from every tree of the garden?" 2 At this the woman said to the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden. 3 But God has said about the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden: 'You must not eat from it, no, you must not touch it; otherwise you will die.'" 4 At this the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die. 5 For God knows that in the very day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and bad.'"

Here we see the core lie: that Jehovah withholds good from his creatures and that they can decide for themselves what is good and bad without him. This was more than disobedience; it was a direct challenge to Jehovah's sovereignty—his right to rule all intelligent life.

Jehovah could have destroyed the rebels immediately, but that would not have fully answered the accusations. Instead, he allowed time for the issue to be settled. Later, Satan's challenge is described more clearly in the book of Job.

Job 1:9–11:
"At that Satan answered Jehovah: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God? 10 Have you not put up a protective hedge around him and his house and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock has spread out in the land. 11 But, for a change, stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your very face.'"

Satan claimed that humans serve God only for selfish reasons. The underlying question: Will people remain loyal to Jehovah out of love, even under pressure, or only when life is easy?

Rather than end the matter by force, Jehovah allowed humans to live under independence and under Satan's influence for a limited time. The Bible describes Satan's current influence.

1 John 5:19:
"We know that we originate with God, but the whole world is lying in the power of the wicked one."

Revelation 12:9:
"So down the great dragon was hurled, the original serpent, the one called Devil and Satan, who is misleading the entire inhabited earth; he was hurled down to the earth, and his angels were hurled down with him."

The suffering and injustice in the world are not evidence that Jehovah is a poor ruler; rather, they are the predictable result of rebellion and Satanic influence. Jehovah allows this temporary period so that all intelligent creatures can see clearly what rule independent of him produces.

Yet Jehovah did not leave matters without hope. In Eden itself, he foretold a solution.

Genesis 3:15:
"And I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your offspring and her offspring. He will crush your head, and you will strike him in the heel.'"

This "offspring" or "seed" is Christ Jesus, through whom Jehovah would ultimately destroy Satan and undo the harm caused by the rebellion. Jehovah also speaks of installing a Messianic King.

Psalm 2:6–8:
"Saying: 'I myself have installed my king On Zion, my holy mountain.' 7 Let me proclaim the decree of Jehovah; He said to me: 'You are my son; Today I have become your father. 8 Ask of me, and I will give nations as your inheritance And the ends of the earth as your possession.'"

In the time of the end, Christ is enthroned as heavenly King, and a final separating work takes place on earth. A people are gathered who willingly submit to Jehovah's sovereignty and uphold his name.

Acts 15:14:
"Sym'e·on has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name."

Through the faith and endurance of this people—Jehovah's Witnesses today—Jehovah demonstrates that humans can and do serve him out of love, even under trial, disproving Satan's accusations. At the appointed time, God's Kingdom will act.

Daniel 2:44:
"In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. And this kingdom will not be passed on to any other people. It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it alone will stand forever."

When that Kingdom destroys all human governments and Satan's system, the issue raised in Eden will be settled forever. All loyal creatures will be fully convinced that Jehovah's way of ruling is right and best.

Chapter 3 – The Ransom, the Anointed, and the Other Sheep

A key part of Jehovah's answer to the rebellion in Eden is the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. The ransom provides the legal basis for forgiving sins, restoring humans to perfection, and gathering a united family in heaven and on earth.

John 3:16:

"For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life."

Jehovah did not simply overlook sin; his justice required a corresponding price. Jesus willingly offered his perfect human life.

Matthew 20:28:

"Just as the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

Adam lost perfect life for all his descendants; Jesus, a perfect man, provided a matching, corresponding life. The ransom thus satisfies justice and magnifies Jehovah's love, proving Satan's claims wrong.

The ransom is the only basis for approach to God.

1 Timothy 2:5, 6:

"For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, a man, Christ Jesus,
6 who gave himself a corresponding ransom for all—this is what is to be witnessed to in its own due time."

There is only one mediator—Christ Jesus—not a host of saints or a human clergy. The Christian organization's mission is to witness about this ransom at the right time.

Jehovah also arranged that a group of humans would share with Christ in his heavenly Kingdom. These are the anointed ones.

Romans 8:16, 17:

"The spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are God's children. 17 If, then, we are children, we are also heirs—heirs indeed of God, but joint heirs with Christ—provided we suffer together so that we may also be glorified together."

They receive a special witness of the spirit that they are called to heavenly life as joint heirs with Christ. Revelation gives their final number.

Revelation 14:1:
"Then I saw, and look! the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who have his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads."

Revelation 20:6:
"Happy and holy is anyone having part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no authority, but they will be priests of God and of the Christ, and they will rule as kings with him for the 1,000 years."

The anointed, taken from among mankind, will serve as kings and priests with Christ in heaven. In our day, they are gathered and spiritually fed through the same worldwide organization that cares for all of Jehovah's people.

Most loyal humans, however, have an earthly hope.

Psalm 37:29:
"The righteous will possess the earth, And they will live forever on it."

Jesus spoke of "other sheep" who would be united under his care.

John 10:16:
"And I have other sheep, which are not of this fold; those too I must bring in, and they will listen to my voice, and they will become one flock, one shepherd."

The “fold” corresponds to those with a heavenly calling; the “other sheep” represent those who will live forever on earth. Both groups become one flock under one shepherd, Jesus, united in one organization.

Revelation describes a great crowd of these other sheep.

Revelation 7:9, 10:
“After this I saw, and look! a great crowd, which no man was able to number, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes; and there were palm branches in their hands. 10 And they keep shouting with a loud voice, saying: “Salvation we owe to our God, who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb.””

Thus, Jehovah’s purpose unfolds through:

- One God, Jehovah.
- One mediator, Christ Jesus.
- One ransom, Jesus’ perfect life.
- One organization, unified worldwide.
- Two hopes, heavenly and earthly, united in worship.

This unified arrangement centers on the ransom and vindicates Jehovah’s sovereignty, demonstrating that humans can be brought back into loving harmony with him.

Chapter 4 – Life Under God’s Kingdom: The Earth Made New

Jehovah’s purpose for the earth has not changed since creation. He intended it to be a paradise filled with righteous humans.

Genesis 1:28:

"Further, God blessed them, and God said to them: "Be fruitful and become many, fill the earth and subdue it, and have in subjection the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and every living creature that is moving on the earth."'

The rebellion in Eden temporarily interrupted this purpose, but it did not cancel it. God's Kingdom will ensure its fulfillment. That Kingdom is a real government.

Daniel 2:44:

"In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. And this kingdom will not be passed on to any other people. It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it alone will stand forever."

This Kingdom will destroy all human governments and remain as the only ruling authority over the earth. It will bring an end to war.

Isaiah 2:4:

"He will render judgment among the nations And set matters straight respecting many peoples. They will beat their swords into plowshares And their spears into pruning shears. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, Nor will they learn war anymore."

Under Kingdom rule, military training and warfare will cease. Resources now used for war will be directed to peaceful, productive work. Sickness, pain, and death will also be removed.

Revelation 21:3, 4:

"With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."'

Jehovah will also raise the dead.

John 5:28, 29:
"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

Millions who have died are in Jehovah's memory and will be restored to life on a paradise earth. Conditions there are described in beautiful language.

Isaiah 11:6–9:
"The wolf will reside for a while with the lamb, And with the young goat the leopard will lie down, And the calf and the lion and the fattened animal will all be together; And a little boy will lead them. 7 The cow and the bear will feed together, And their young will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the bull. 8 The nursing child will play over the lair of a cobra, And a weaned child will put his hand over the den of a poisonous snake. 9 They will not cause any harm Or any ruin in all my holy mountain, Because the earth will certainly be filled with the knowledge of Jehovah As the waters cover the sea."

The earth will be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, bringing peace and harmony between humans and animals. Christ will rule with justice.

Isaiah 9:6, 7:
"For a child has been born to us, A son has been given to us; And the rulership will rest on his shoulder. His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace. 7 To the increase of his rulership And to peace, there will be no end, On the throne of David and on his kingdom In order to establish it firmly and to sustain it Through justice and righteousness, From now on and forever. The zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this."

The organization of Jehovah's Witnesses now functions as a preparatory arrangement, training people to live under Kingdom rule. Meetings, the preaching work, and congregational discipline all help individuals develop the qualities needed in the new world.

1 John 2:17:
"Furthermore, the world is passing away and so is its desire, but the one who does the will of God remains forever."

Those who align their lives with Jehovah's will now are preparing to live forever in the promised new world.

Chapter 5 – Walking by Faith: Prayer, Endurance, and Loyal Attachment to Jehovah

Jehovah's purpose is grand, but each servant of God must choose to walk with him personally. Faith, prayer, and endurance are essential for remaining loyal within his organization.

Faith is more than belief; it is confident trust.

Hebrews 11:1:

"Faith is the assured expectation of what is hoped for, the evident demonstration of realities that are not seen."

Hebrews 11:6:

"Moreover, without faith it is impossible to please God well, for whoever approaches God must believe that he is and that he becomes the rewarder of those earnestly seeking him."

Jehovah wants us to be convinced of his existence and his rewarding nature. Prayer is our direct line of communication with him.

Philippians 4:6, 7:

"Do not be anxious over anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus."

Jesus taught us to focus our prayers on Jehovah's name and Kingdom.

Matthew 6:9, 10:

"You must pray, then, this way: "'Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified.
10 Let your Kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also on earth.'"

Trials are inevitable, but they can strengthen us.

James 1:2–4:

"Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you meet with various trials, 3 knowing as you do that this tested quality of your faith produces endurance. 4 But let endurance complete its work, so that you may be complete and sound in all respects, not lacking in anything."

Jehovah never allows a test beyond what we can bear.

1 Corinthians 10:13:

"No temptation has come upon you except what is common to men. But God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear, but along with the temptation he will also make the way out so that you may be able to endure it."

He also provides congregational support.

Hebrews 10:24, 25:

"And let us consider one another so as to incite to love and fine works, 25 not forsaking our meeting together, as some have the custom, but encouraging one another, and all the more so as you see the day drawing near."

Galatians 6:2:

"Go on carrying the burdens of one another, and in this way you will fulfill the law of the Christ."

At times, misunderstandings or imperfections can test loyalty, but we remember where the sayings of everlasting life are found.

John 6:68, 69:

"Simon Peter answered him: 'Lord, whom shall we go away to? You have sayings of everlasting life. 69 We have believed and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.”’

Jehovah does not forget those who remain loyal.

Hebrews 6:10:
“For God is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and the love you showed for his name by ministering and continuing to minister to the holy ones.”

Every prayer, every act of faith, every hour of service is precious to him. Through faith, prayer, and endurance, we remain closely attached to Jehovah and the organization he is using, and we move steadily toward the day when his purpose is fully realized.

Chapter 6 – Guided by Holy Spirit: How Jehovah Directs His People Today

Holy spirit is Jehovah’s active force, the invisible power by which he accomplishes his will. Without it, no human or organization could carry out the enormous work assigned in these last days. Through his spirit, Jehovah guides decisions, strengthens individuals, and produces beautiful qualities in his servants worldwide.

Chapter 7 – Holy Spirit—Jehovah’s Active Force

Holy spirit is not a person or part of a trinity; it is Jehovah’s power in action.

Acts 1:8:
“But you will receive power when the holy spirit comes upon you, and you will be witnesses of me in Jerusalem, in all Ju·de'a and Sa·mar'i·a, and to the most distant part of the earth.”

Jesus promised his followers that holy spirit would give them power to witness about him “to the most distant part of the earth.” This same spirit empowers Jehovah’s Witnesses today to carry out their global preaching work, often in the face of indifference, opposition, or personal weakness.

Chapter 8 – Holy Spirit and the Governing Body

In the first century, decisions affecting all congregations were made, not by human wisdom alone, but under the influence of holy spirit.

Acts 15:28:
“For the holy spirit and we ourselves have favored adding no further burden to you except these necessary things.”

When the governing body of apostles and elders in Jerusalem considered questions about circumcision and the Law, they concluded their decision with the words “the holy spirit and we ourselves.” This shows they recognized holy spirit’s role in guiding their deliberations based on Scripture and prayer.

In our time, the central body overseeing the worldwide congregation similarly seeks direction from holy spirit, carefully studying the Bible, praying earnestly, and humbly adjusting as light becomes brighter.

Proverbs 4:18:
“But the path of the righteous is like the bright morning light That grows brighter and brighter until full daylight.”

Adjustments in understanding or procedure are not signs of instability but evidence that holy spirit continues to refine Jehovah's people.

Chapter 9 – Holy Spirit in the Preaching Work

The good news is being preached on a scale never seen before. This is not due to human planning alone; holy spirit directs and energizes the work.

Matthew 24:14:
"And this good news of the Kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come."

To fulfill this prophecy, millions of ordinary people—young and old, healthy and sick, educated and less educated—boldly share the Kingdom message. Many feel naturally shy or fearful, yet holy spirit gives them courage.

2 Timothy 1:7:
"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but one of power and of love and of soundness of mind."

This spirit of "power and of love and of soundness of mind" helps publishers, pioneers, and missionaries overcome fear, remain balanced, and speak with kindness and conviction. Doors open, hearts respond, and Bible studies are established in ways that often bear the clear imprint of Jehovah's direction.

Chapter 10 – Holy Spirit Produces Christlike Qualities

Holy spirit is also essential for developing the personality Jehovah desires. On our own, we cannot uproot deep-seated traits like anger, pride, or immorality. But with holy spirit, transformation is possible.

Galatians 5:22, 23:
"On the other hand, the fruitage of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 mildness, self-control. Against such things there is no law."

This "fruitage of the spirit" is visible among Jehovah's Witnesses worldwide. Despite differences in culture, language, and background, the same qualities—love, joy, peace, and more—grow and flourish. This unity in personality is a powerful testimony that one spirit is at work among them.

Chapter 11 – Holy Spirit Helps in Our Prayers and Weaknesses

At times, our trials or emotions may make it hard to express ourselves in prayer. Jehovah understands and helps us by means of his spirit.

Romans 8:26, 27:
"In like manner, the spirit also joins in with help for our weakness; for the problem is that we do not know what we should pray for as we need to, but the spirit itself pleads for us with unuttered groanings. 27 But the one who searches the hearts knows what the meaning of the spirit is, because it is pleading in harmony with God for the holy ones."

Holy spirit "helps us in our weakness" by moving our hearts, clarifying our thoughts, and assuring us that Jehovah understands even what we cannot put into words. This gives deep comfort, especially in times of grief, confusion, or discouragement.

Chapter 12 – Asking for Holy Spirit—and Receiving It

Jehovah is generous with his spirit; he invites us to ask for it regularly.

Luke 11:13:
"Therefore, if you, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more so will the Father in heaven give holy spirit to those asking him!"

This promise assures us that when we specifically pray for holy spirit—to understand a scripture, to endure a trial, to speak boldly in the ministry—Jehovah gladly responds. The more we ask in faith, the more we experience its help.

Chapter 13 – Holy Spirit and Personal Guidance

Holy spirit does not whisper in our ear or bypass our thinking, but it guides us through God's Word, the congregation, and our trained conscience.

Psalm 143:10:

“Teach me to do your will, For you are my God. Your spirit is good; May it lead me on level ground.”

As we study the Bible, attend meetings, and apply what we learn, holy spirit “leads” us on “level ground”—paths that are safe, balanced, and pleasing to Jehovah. Wrong decisions and harmful associations become easier to avoid, and wise choices become clearer.

Through holy spirit, Jehovah directs his organization, empowers the preaching work, shapes Christian personality, and strengthens individuals in prayer and decision-making. In the remaining time of this system, those who stay in step with the spirit will be the ones who endure and see the fulfillment of all Jehovah’s promises.

Chapter 14 – The Time of the End: Understanding 1914 and the Last Days

Jesus warned that no one would know the exact day of the end, but he gave clear signs to identify the time period. Jehovah's Witnesses understand 1914 as the beginning of Christ's invisible presence and "the last days." This date harmonizes dozens of Bible prophecies and world events, confirming where we are in the stream of time.

Chapter 15 – The Significance of 1914

Bible chronology and prophecy converge on 1914 as a pivotal date. Jesus described events marking his presence:

Matthew 24:3, 7, 14:
"While he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately, saying: 'Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your presence and of the conclusion of the system of things?'... For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be food shortages and earthquakes in one place after another... And this good news of the Kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come."

World War I began in 1914, fulfilling "nation against nation." Since then, wars, famines, earthquakes, and the global preaching work identify this period as Christ's invisible presence—the time of the end.

Chapter 16 – The "Times of the Gentiles"

Jesus linked the end to the conclusion of Gentile Times.

Luke 21:24:
"And they will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the nations until the appointed times of the nations are fulfilled."

Daniel's prophecy provides the key:

Daniel 4:16, 23, 25:
"Let its heart be changed from that of a human, and let it be given the heart of a beast, and let seven times pass over it... And the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from the heavens, who was saying: "Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump with its roots in the ground, with a banding of iron and of copper, among the grass of the field. And let the dew of the heavens make it wet, and let its portion be with the beasts of the field until seven times pass over it.”... You will be driven away from among men, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field, and you will be given vegetation to eat just like bulls; and you will become wet with the dew of the heavens, and seven times will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind and that he grants it to whomever he wants."

The "seven times" represent seven prophetic years (360 days/year x 7 = 2,520 days). Applying "a day for a year," this equals 2,520 years from Jerusalem's fall in 607 B.C.E., arriving at 1914 C.E. At that time, Satan's Gentile dominion ended, and Christ's Kingdom began ruling invisibly in heaven.

Chapter – 17 Satan's Eviction From Heaven

1914 also marks the beginning of war in heaven.

Revelation 12:7-10:
"And war broke out in heaven: Mi'cha·el and his angels battled with the dragon, and the dragon and its angels battled 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. 9 So down the great dragon was hurled, the original serpent, the one called Devil and Satan, who is misleading the entire inhabited earth; he was hurled down to the earth, and his angels were hurled down with him. 10 I heard a loud voice in heaven say: “Now have come to pass the salvation and the power and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ, because the accuser of our brothers has been hurled down, who accuses them day and night before our God.'"

Satan's ousting intensified his wrath on earth, explaining the miseries since 1914. Christ's Kingdom gained the legal right to end wickedness.

Chapter 18 – Signs of the Last Days Intensify

Paul described moral conditions of the last days:

2 Timothy 3:1-5:
"But know this, that in the last days critical times hard to deal with will be here. 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, disloyal, 3 having no natural affection, not open to any agreement, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, without love of goodness, 4 betrayers, headstrong, puffed up with pride, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God, 5 having an appearance of godliness but proving false to its power; and from these turn away."

These conditions dominate modern society. Jesus added:

Matthew 24:12:
"And because of the increasing of lawlessness, the love of the greater number will grow cold."

Chapter 19 – The Kingdom Preaching Identifies the Time

The global preaching work confirms 1914:

Matthew 24:14:
"And this good news of the Kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come."

Only Jehovah's Witnesses fulfill this sign on a global scale.

Chapter 20 – Refinements in Understanding

Early expectations that earthly restoration would occur in 1914, 1925, or 1975 were sincere but adjusted as light brightened. These were Bible-based possibilities, not failed prophecy.

Matthew 24:36:
“Concerning that day and hour nobody knows, neither the angels of the heavens nor the Son, but only the Father."

Jehovah reveals truth progressively. The focus remains on Kingdom progress, not dates.

Chapter 21 – Living in the Time of the End

Understanding 1914 creates urgency:

1 Thessalonians 5:1-3:
"Now as for the times and the seasons, brothers, you need nothing to be written to you.
2 For you yourselves know very well that Jehovah’s day is coming exactly as a thief in the night. 3 Whenever it is that they are saying, “Peace and security!” then sudden destruction is to be instantly on them, just like birth pains on a pregnant woman, and they will by no means escape."

2 Peter 3:11-13:
"Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, consider what sort of people you ought to be in holy acts of conduct and deeds of godly devotion, 12 as you await and keep close in mind the presence of the day of Jehovah, through which the heavens will be destroyed in flames and the elements will melt in the intense heat! 13 But there are new heavens and a new earth that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell."

Chapter 22 – Proof in World Events

Since 1914: two world wars, genocides, moral collapse, natural disasters, and global preaching all align precisely with prophecy. No other period matches this composite sign.

1914 marks Christ's enthronement, Satan's downfall, and the last days' beginning. This understanding motivates Jehovah's people to preach urgently while living cleanly, proving their loyalty as the end nears. The evidence—Scriptural chronology plus world events—confirms we live at the thrilling climax of human history.

Chapter 23 – The Great Tribulation and Armageddon: Jehovah’s Final Victory

The Bible foretells a climactic period of distress followed by Jehovah’s complete triumph over wickedness. The great tribulation leads directly to Armageddon, when God’s Kingdom destroys all opposition and ushers in the new world. Understanding these events strengthens faith and motivates urgent Kingdom activity.

Chapter 24 – The Great Tribulation Begins

Jesus described unprecedented trouble just before the end.

Matthew 24:21, 22:
“For then there will be great tribulation such as has not occurred since the world’s beginning until now, no, nor will occur again. 22 In fact, unless those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved; but on account of the chosen ones those days will be cut short.”

This tribulation exceeds all previous calamities. It begins when Babylon the Great—false religion—is suddenly destroyed.

Revelation 17:1, 16:
“One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me: “Come, I will show you the judgment on the great prostitute who sits on many waters... And the ten horns that you saw and the wild beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her devastated and naked, and they will eat up her flesh and completely burn her with fire.”’

Human governments turn on religion, annihilating it completely. This triggers worldwide chaos.

Chapter 25 – Peace and Security—A Dangerous False Hope

Just before destruction, world leaders will proclaim false security.

1 Thessalonians 5:2-4:
“For you yourselves know very well that Jehovah’s day is coming exactly as a thief in the night. 3 Whenever it is that they are saying, “Peace and security!” then sudden destruction is to be instantly on them, just like birth pains on a pregnant woman, and they will by no means escape. 4 But you, brothers, you are not in darkness, so that the day should overtake you as it would thieves.”

Jehovah's people recognize this cry as the final signal. Instead of relaxing, they intensify spiritual activity.

Chapter 26 – The Climax: Armageddon

The tribulation culminates at Armageddon—God's war against the nations.

Revelation 16:14, 16:
"They are, in fact, expressions inspired by demons and they perform signs, and they go out to the kings of the entire inhabited earth, to gather them together to the war of the great day of God the Almighty... 16 And they gathered them together to the place that is called in Hebrew Armageddon."

Revelation 19:11, 14-16, 19-21:
11 "I saw heaven opened, and look! a white horse. And the one seated on it is called Faithful and True, and he judges and carries on war in righteousness... 14 Also, the armies in heaven were following him on white horses, and they were clothed in white, clean, fine linen. 15 And out of his mouth protrudes a sharp, long sword with which to strike the nations, and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron. Moreover, he treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. 16 On his outer garment, yes, on his thigh, he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords... 19 And I saw the wild beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage war against the one seated on the horse and against his army. 20 And the wild beast was caught, and along with it the false prophet that performed in front of it the signs with which he misled those who received the mark of the wild beast and those who worship its image. While still alive, they both were hurled into the fiery lake that burns with sulfur. 21 But the rest were killed off with the long sword that proceeded out of the mouth of the one seated on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh. the wild beast was caught, and along with it the false prophet that performed in front of it the signs with which he misled those who received the mark of the wild beast and those who worship its image. While still alive, they both were hurled into the fiery lake that burns with sulfur."

Jesus Christ, leading heavenly armies, executes Jehovah's judgment. No human army withstands divine power. The political system, false prophet, and all opposers perish.

Chapter 27 – Who Survives?

Only those with Jehovah's approval pass through the tribulation.

Zephaniah 2:3:
"Seek Jehovah, all you meek ones of the earth, Who observe his righteous decrees. Seek righteousness, seek meekness. Probably you will be concealed on the day of Jehovah's anger."

Psalm 37:9-11:
"For evil men will be done away with, But those hoping in Jehovah will possess the earth. ı [Waw] 10 Just a little while longer, and the wicked will be no more; You will look at where they were, And they will not be there. 11 But the meek will possess the earth, And they will find exquisite delight in the abundance of peace."

The great crowd emerges into a cleansed earth, ready for Kingdom blessings.

Revelation 7:14:
"So right away I said to him: "My lord, you are the one who knows." And he said to me: "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Chapter 28 – Satan's Final Rebellion

After Armageddon, Satan is bound for 1,000 years.

Revelation 20:1-3:
“And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven with the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 He seized the dragon, the original serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for 1,000 years. 3 And he hurled him into the abyss and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he would not mislead the nations anymore until the 1,000 years were ended. After this he must be released for a little while.”

During the Millennium, the earth transforms into paradise. At its end, Satan tests survivors.

Revelation 20:7-10:
“Now as soon as the 1,000 years have ended, Satan will be released from his prison, 8 and he will go out to mislead those nations in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Ma'gog, to gather them together for the war. The number of these is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they advanced over the whole earth and encircled the camp of the holy ones and the beloved city. But fire came down out of heaven and consumed them. 10 And the Devil who was misleading them was hurled into the lake of fire and sulfur, where both the wild beast and the false prophet already were; and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.”

The final test proves mankind’s loyalty permanently. Satan and all rebels are destroyed forever.

Chapter 29 – Resurrection During the Millennium

The 1,000 years see massive resurrections.

John 5:28, 29:
"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

Billions return, learn truth, and choose loyalty. The Kingdom government teaches and judges perfectly.

Isaiah 26:19:
"Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life."

Chapter 30 – New Heavens and New Earth

The Millennium completes Jehovah's purpose.

2 Peter 3:13:
"But there are new heavens and a new earth that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell."

Revelation 21:1-4:
"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea is no more. 2 I also saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God and prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them.
4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Perfect humanity fills a paradise earth under perfect government. Jehovah's sovereignty stands vindicated forever.

The great tribulation and Armageddon mark the glorious climax of Jehovah's purpose. His people watch expectantly, preaching urgently, living cleanly, and trusting his promises. When these events unfold, every knee will bend to Jehovah, and his name will be magnified universally.

Chapter 31 – Conclusion: Why Jehovah's Witnesses Stand Alone

Every major Bible theme converges on one visible organization today. From creation to the new world, Jehovah's purpose unfolds through a people who bear his name, preach his Kingdom, and live by his standards. No other group matches this identifying pattern.

Chapter 32 – A Composite Sign That Cannot Be Imitated

Jesus said true followers would be known by their fruits.

Matthew 7:16-20:
"By their fruits you will recognize them. Never do people gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles, do they? 17 Likewise, every good tree produces fine fruit, but every rotten tree produces worthless fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear worthless fruit, nor can a rotten tree produce fine fruit. 19 Every tree not producing fine fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Really, then, by their fruits you will recognize those men."

Consider these Scriptural marks, fulfilled uniquely by Jehovah's Witnesses:

- Use of Jehovah's name: Psalm 83:18 – Over 7,000 times in Scripture, restored where Christendom removed it.
- Global Kingdom preaching: Matthew 24:14 – 8+ million publishers in 240 lands, 1,000+ languages.
- Christian neutrality: John 17:16 – No voting, military, or politics despite persecution in 100+ countries.
- Clean worship: 2 Corinthians 6:17 – No holidays, blood, idols, hellfire, Trinity, or immorality.
- Worldwide unity: Ephesians 4:4-6 – One doctrine, one organization, no denominations.
- Faithful slave: Matthew 24:45 – Governing Body feeds millions spiritually.
- Love among themselves: John 13:35 – Warm brotherhood crossing all races, cultures.

No religion combines all these marks. Christendom compromises with politics and paganism. Others lack global preaching or moral standards.

Chapter 33 – The Ultimate Proof: Endurance Under Test

Satan's challenge in Eden required proof that creatures serve Jehovah out of love. Millions do—enduring bans, imprisonment, family opposition, and death rather than compromise.

Job 2:4, 5:

"But Satan answered Jehovah: 'Skin for skin. A man will give everything that he has for his life. 5 But, for a change, stretch out your hand and strike his bone and flesh, and he will surely curse you to your very face.'"

Witnesses prove Satan wrong daily. Their loyalty vindicates Jehovah's sovereignty.

Chapter 34 – An Urgent Invitation

Time is short. The end nears.

2 Corinthians 6:2:
"For he says: "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you." Look! Now is the especially acceptable time. Look! Now is the day of salvation."

Revelation 22:17:
"And the spirit and the bride keep on saying, "Come!" and let anyone hearing say, "Come!" and let anyone thirsting come; let anyone who wishes take life's water free."

Acts 17:11:
"Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thes·sa·lo·ni'ca, for they accepted the word with the greatest eagerness of mind, carefully examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so."

Chapter 35 – The Final Word

Jehovah named his people at Isaiah 43:10-12:
""You are my witnesses," declares Jehovah, "Yes, my servant whom I have chosen, So that you may know and have faith in me And understand that I am the same One. Before me no God was formed, And after me there has been none. 11 I—I am Jehovah, and besides me there is no savior." 12 "I am the One who declared and saved and made known When there was no foreign god among you. So you are my witnesses," declares Jehovah, "and I am God.""

Through chronological prophecy (1914), global preaching, clean conduct, and loving unity, one group stands identified today. Jehovah's Witnesses fulfill every mark of the true religion.

James 1:27:
"The form of worship that is clean and undefiled from the standpoint of our God and Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep oneself without spot from the world."

John 4:23, 24:
"Nevertheless, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the true worshippers will worship the Father with spirit and truth, for indeed, the Father is looking for ones like these to worship him. 24 God is a Spirit, and those worshipping him must worship with spirit and truth."

Choose pure worship. Join Jehovah's people. The Kingdom is near.
